Your donation has been made to PayPal Charitable Giving Fund (PayPal Giving Fund), a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as a tax-exempt public charity (Federal Tax ID: 45-0931286), and is subject to PayPal Giving Fund's policies and Donor Terms of Service.

PayPal Giving Fund receives contributions and disburses those contributions to charities in the form of grants to further charitable and educational purposes. We make a single payment to charities each month to keep administrative costs low for the charities.

PayPal Giving Fund will only make a donor-advised grants to organizations that qualify and have been recognized by the IRS as public charities under Sections 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) of the Code, or foreign organizations that, in the sole discretion and determination of PayPal Giving Fund, are the equivalent of US public charities or conduct programs that would qualify as charitable and educational under US law. PayPal Giving Fund will not grant funds directly to individuals, supporting organizations, or non-operating private foundations. Grant may not be used to confer a personal or more than incidental benefit on you, any member of your family, or any entity affiliated with or controlled by you. While we make every effort to deliver each donation according to the donor's wishes, we retain exclusive control over all donations and grant funds in accordance with our Donation Delivery Policy. In the rare event that, after reasonable efforts, PayPal Giving Fund cannot deliver donations to the charity you recommend, it will whenever possible seek a new recommendation from you, and if no recommendation is given, will reassign the funds to another charity, which has been vetted by PayPal Giving Fund.

This email receipt confirms you have made the donation as a charitable contribution and that PayPal Giving Fund has provided no goods or services in consideration for your contributions to PayPal Giving Fund. As required by law, in order for your donation to a DAF, such as PayPal Giving Fund, to be considered tax-deductible, it must be a final and irrevocable gift to PayPal Giving Fund. Refunds may only be granted in exceptional circumstances, in accordance with our our donation refund policy, and only when the funds have not already been re-granted by PayPal Giving Fund to another charity.

If you have any questions about your donation, please visit our Help and Contact page.
